DUTCHESS COUNTY CENTRAL LABOR COUNCIL ENDORSES LEGISLATIVE CANDIDATES

The Dutchess County Central Labor Council and the Hudson Valley Area Labor Federation today announced the slate of Dutchess County legislative candidates that they have endorsed for this November.

Although the Dutchess County CLC had previously released the names of endorsed candidates in other Dutchess County races, CLC members felt that the legislative races warranted particular consideration. Because the candidates running for a seat in the Legislature have a tremendous ability to impact the lives of working families, members carefully assessed both their voting records and positions on key issues. Council members made sure that any candidate baring their endorsement was ready and willing to take up the fight for working men and women in Dutchess County.

Paul Ellis-Graham, President of the Hudson Valley Area Labor Federation, stressed the importance of the legislative races. "The County Legislature is an extremely important decision making body that affects thousands of working families in Dutchess. Council members were adamant about ensuring that their endorsement will lead voters in the right direction come November. We endorsed those candidates that not only say they will stand up for working families, but also prove that they will."
